***** Chapter 1 ******Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Libra

You were born under the sign of LIBRA and your ruling planet is Venus, which endows you with great idealism, a sense of justice and refined taste.

Your Sun sign is CARDINAL and this indicates that you were born to be a leader, either in thought or action. You are never completely satisfied in a subordinate position carrying out the ideas of others, unless they are part of your aspirations. You are comfortable working independently or occupying a leadership position.

Libra is an AIR sign and this makes you curious, sociable and mentally very active. All occupations that stimulate your intellect and the possibility of communicating will be very favorable. You need variety, harmony and the exchange of ideas.

You are quiet, sophisticated, warm and patient, and seek balance and harmony in your surroundings. Because of your personal charm you easily connect with people and are likely to have a great social life. You are happier sharing your life with your loved ones than living alone. You are always willing to cooperate and help others, sometimes putting aside your own objectives.

Your sense of justice is also very strong and you do not support or participate in injustices. Although you detest aggressiveness and shady dealings, if necessary you will show your aggressive side and your inflexibility. You have good taste and an innate sense of harmony and beauty. You are concerned about personal aesthetics and harmony in your surroundings, which will cause you to create an agreeable and refined environment. You are likely to enjoy life and pleasures. Your attitude will always be congenial, open and happy.

You were born to co-operate, to persuade, to mediate, to conciliate and to balance things around you. One of your missions is to work for peace and harmony in the world, imposing justice and order with your natural diplomacy. You were born to develop your artistic and aesthetics abilities, to socialize, to teach, advise, guide, and to harmonize associations.

To evolve, your spirit needs to overcome the strong doubts that plague you when you have to make a decision. You have to learn to be direct and firm with your opinions, setting aside any complacency that could sometimes leave you a bit too quiet. You need to guard against a tendency to comfort, inertia, a great dependence on affection from certain people and the search for peace at any price. You will also have to surmount the hatred you easily accumulate within yourself, learning to forgive and forget.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Capricorn

Others see you as a serious, responsible and very industrious person. You radiate confidence and firmness, and this will allow you to occupy important positions.

You possess great intelligence and practical sense which permits you to solve most of your problems. You are realistic, practical and able to get things done. You don't want to depend on anybody and are used to assuming your responsibilities, and sometimes those of others as well. You are not very communicative or interested in superficial relationships, because you value your time. You are inflexible and authoritative which could limit your social life. You are faithful and constant in your affections as well as your material interests, and you are always willing to fight to obtain what you want. Try to be more expressive with your affections so you won't be considered cold or distant.

The profession you choose will have to permit you to act independently, with authority, practicality and seriousness. You need to feel that you are doing something useful and practical. Avoid jobs where you do not have a possibility of higher positions, of learning a little more every day, or where you do not have coherent superiors or logical organization.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Virgo

Your emotions are filtered by your mind before they are expressed, which could make you cold, calculating or inhibited. You are very difficult to please and can adopt an obsessive or very criticizing attitude that doesn't allow you to freely enjoy your affections. You have a fear of failure and continually seek total safety and this leads you to restrain from demonstrating your affections and talents.

On the other hand, you like to serve and accomplish those tasks that benefit your loved ones, but often have problems understanding the feelings of others. You are analytical and think a long time before acting. You don't like to waste time and are very demanding with yourself and with others. You stand out in your job through your efficiency and your ability to concentrate and organize. You are also concerned about your health and your diet and you don't neglect personal hygiene. You are delicate and selective with your pleasures.

Subconsciously, you have a strong fear of expressing your own power. In previous lives you may have lived in poverty, disease or humility and because of this, you now have the need to find safety and protection from people around you. You are afraid of diseases and its consequences. On the other hand, you may have held positions of service, done healing and worked with patients or been a craftsman, and from thence originates your ability to see details, your need to make projects to perfection and to your requirements. You now have to seek an opening to your emotional world and to note the development and not the perfection.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to find security, order and cleanliness. You need to feel useful to others and want to show your ability to serve. In the long run, you have a great need for recognition of your labor, but have difficulty making it count.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Scorpio

You have a very intuitive and inquiring mind. You are very fond of everything that is mysterious, hidden or unresolved. Your inquiring nature will make you investigate and study metaphysics, occultism and mysteries of life in general. You love knowing everybody's secrets, but will keep yours well hidden. Your logical reasoning can be affected by your very intense emotional world. Avoid making decisions when you are angry, because in those moments you lack coherence and logic. Your humor tends to be sharp and sarcastic. Generally you are likely to express your ideas as they occur, without any previous thought, refinement or delicacy. Many people may think you are aggressive, as you are frank and will go straight to the point. Your ideas are fixed and unchangeable, once you have decided to do something. You are not inhibited by fears and will challenge any authority.

Because of your distrust, your way of communicating could be somewhat limited. You are likely to have few close friends to share your life with. You have to learn to be more flexible and adaptable to new situations, and avoid being so dominant and reckless.

***** Chapter 2 ******Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 9th house:

Your success is related to long trips, the study of other cultures, languages, philosophy, law and religion. You are anxious to learn and this will cause you to study as well as travel world wide. You are likely to reach material success in a different country from where you were born. If not, you definitely will settle in another place, tend to make many trips and will be in touch with people abroad. Perhaps your father or other family member came from another country.

On the other hand, you have a great sense of justice and if you study the law, would make a very good professional. You also would be very successfully in any educational pursuit. You like to investigate and learn about nature as well as abstract ideas. Your religious feeling will be intense and you are very devoted to your beliefs.

Sun Opposition Jupiter:

You tend to be a bit lazy and are fond of comfort. Your optimism could be exaggerated and create the impression that everything will be solved magically. You have to resist self-indulgence and the tendency to be selfish. You are likely to assume that people will make way for you and you have little consideration for others.

You need to learn to place limits on your objectives and ideas in general, because you tend to see only the big picture and underestimate the finer details of everything.

Sun Sextile Uranus:

Your way of thinking is very special and illuminating for others. Your professional activity could lead you to influence groups or social movements. You are creative and very original.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 8th house:

You are very intuitive and likely to have psychic experiences. You are attracted to mysteries and the hidden sciences, and your intuition may accurately predict events, or premonitory dreams may reveal factual outcomes. On the other hand, you have great ability to handle other people's money or possessions. Throughout your life you may be favored by legacies, inheritances, gifts or marriage to a rich person.

Moon Trine Neptune:

Throughout your life you are likely to have many psychic experiences. You have to learn to rely on your intuition and to develop your spirituality. You are attracted to the hidden sciences and will have great success in anything where you could apply your perceptive powers. You also have ability for music, art, the theater and dance.

Moon Sextile Mercury:

You have a rapid, imaginative, intelligent and retentive mind. If your customary work is related to some intellectual pursuit, you will be very successful. Otherwise you will have to seek a way of using your mental abilities by studying or writing, etc. This astrological influence could bring many trips and the possibility of communicating fluently with others. You have much common sense and your emotions are not likely to obstruct your reasoning.

Moon Sextile Venus:

You are likely to have many friendships and will be very popular with others. You can easily relate to others and show great sensitivity in your dealings, which lets you get along well with everyone and allows you to make friends easily. You also have good taste and are very interested in artistic subjects.

Moon Sextile Pluto:

You are very sure of yourself and do everything authoritatively. You could be a leader in groups or work in places with a large number of people. You are protective and have the necessary strength to help those who need it. You have the ability to regenerate and restore yourself completely after any crisis you may encounter.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Sagittarius on 12th house cusp

You have a tendency to forego anything that gives you happiness, pleasure or simply entertains you. You may be too absorbed with your obligations and daily responsibilities and because of this, you don't thoroughly enjoy your life. It is necessary that you learn to relax and to release your inner child and try to develop your creativity more.

You should be concerned about studying and acquiring your university degree, as you are inclined to abandon your studies. You also will have to avoid the tendency to fanaticism or to cling stubbornly to some kind of philosophy or religion.

This astrological influence could bring legal problems, judgements or losses abroad. There is a tendency to escape or to hide in another country.

Uranus in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is the high degree of creativity you have. You probably are very different from others and tend to avoid expressing many of your real opinions, thereby wasting to a great degree your inventive potential. You are very intellectual, mystical and reserved; you are well suited for investigative projects or any other profession that is developed behind the scene.

Neptune in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your own inspiration and artistic or musical sensibility. You are inclined to loneliness and withdrawal. Your feelings are easily hurt and you prefer to escape your problems, rather than facing them openly. It is important not to indulge in escapist behavior, because that could lead you to vices, to seek the easy way out or entangle you in fraudulent businesses.

***** Chapter 3 ******Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.EXPANSION: Jupiter in Aries*

Your sense of expansion manifests through your authority. You have a talent for leadership and a strong desire for freedom of action. In spite of your ability to learn from your mistakes, you can be quite egocentric and proud. You are confident in your decisions and prepared to face any adversity alone. Growth in your material world will depend on finding possibilities to develop your initiatives or occupying a position of power.

Jupiter in 3rd house:

Your material expansion is related to the level of your education, studies and ability to communicate. You are very alert and your positive disposition will bring you good luck in your projects. You are likely to have a good relationship with your relatives, especially with your brothers and sisters. Because you have a restless mind, you need a none-routine job. At times you may be too talkative and thus waste your energies. It is important that you learn to be a little more reserved. You could also be a bit imprudent and prone to exaggerate.

Jupiter Opposition Sun:

You have a tendency to excesses and exaggeration and don't seem to know your own limits. Because of this, you may disregard important details or have difficulty planning the achievement of your goals. You have to learn to be more orderly, to concentrate your energy on clear and specific goals and to avoid laziness, self-indulgence, illegalities and the tendency to take the easy way out.

Jupiter Trine Uranus:

You are original, creative, determined and practical, which enables you to achieve any goal you set for yourself. Your personal freedom is very important to you and you refuse to be tied down by convention and other limitations. You have great mental energy and can be very warm but not at all sentimental.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Sagittarius

The inhibition principle affects the expansion of your intellectual field. You are conservative in many areas of your life, believing only in principles that have been proven long ago. You have a serious approach to religion, philosophy and higher education. Independent and capable, you search for justice and truth. You are intellectually disciplined and have good powers of concentration, which allows you to earn what you achieve through hard work and application. Your reputation and social status is very important to you. You could be a good teacher, speaker or political leader. You can be easily hurt and show strong resentment when accused unjustly.

Saturn in 11th house:

You may have many older friends for whom you feel a great sense of responsibility. You are very reserved, and may find it difficult to be with groups of people or hard to get close to anyone. For that reason you will have few friends, but will be very loyal to them throughout your life. It is important that you learn to rely on your desires and longings, and to work toward achieving them, because you could develop feelings of low self-worth. Your greatest frustration will be that of not being able to connect and relate well to people your own age. You may also have negative thoughts about the possibility of achieving your own goals.

Saturn Conjunct Uranus:

You have a very strong creative force, which at the same time tends to inhibit you, or you may not rely on your own ideas. You are self-willed and hardworking, but always want your way. You could have conflicts with traditional teaching. In spite of accepting great responsibility, you are likely to make abrupt and sudden decisions that will bring a great change in your daily routine. This could lead you to leave your job impulsively sometime in the future. You will have to learn to release your inner tension constructively.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

***** Chapter 4 ******Finances, source of income.*Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Aquarius on 2nd house cusp

Your financial situation could be unpredictable and difficult to organize. You may have good earnings as well as sudden losses; because of this, you have to learn to organize and to have savings that support you in critical times. You can count on the help of friends and may work with them on mutual projects or you may work with other associates.

You will be successful in occupations that permit you freedom and power of decision. You will be able to earn money through creative, scientific and unusual fields, and occupations related to mathematics and cybernetics. The more distinct, special and novel your work will be, the greater will be your profit.

Ruler of 2nd house in 12th house:

Your income is related to some kind of service in connection with healing and welfare, or helping the less fortunate. You may have difficulties evaluating your self worth, which may impinge your level of income. Evaluating your natural talents would bring better financial opportunities. This influence could bring confidential financial support, but also may incline to clandestine or illegal business. Avoid any easy business that may imply some risk or commitment.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Gemini on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed through your intelligence and wit to quickly solve problems in a practical way. Your natural sense of authority leads you to seek leadership, however, it may not bring the position that appeals to you or that you may choose. Communication will be the basis of your satisfaction in any occupational position.

***** Chapter 5 ******Your creativity and recreational activities.
Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Taurus on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that bring you in touch with earth; among them could be gardening, agriculture, as well as walking, camping in the woods or fields, horseback riding or mountain-climbing. Your creativity is stimulated by natural environments where you find peace, harmony and beauty. You also may be interested in manual activities such as arts and crafts, ceramics, sculpturing or carpentry. The idea of making money is always on your mind and this could decrease your peace and happiness. You may let your recreational development slide, if you don't consider it productive or necessary.

***** Chapter 6 ******Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.Scorpio MC*

Your destiny will compel you to explore the unknown and to take many risks. You will excel in those fields where you will have to dive -- into the sea, into the human soul or into the sciences. You have an intrepid and adventurous spirit which will take your investigations to the bottom of the sea, into space, into grottos, volcanos, jungles etc., and though physically you may never be there, your mind will. You are very competitive in your profession and ready to argue with your boss and colleagues, and probably come out on top. You are attracted to the sea shore, lakes and rivers, and will probably make your home near water. You are very particular in your choice of profession and not likely to follow the advice or wishes of your family. Your most powerful professional weapon is your own intuition. You will have accurate hunches concerning what you have to do.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions: doctor, surgeon, endocrinologist, chemist, naval or electronic engineer, pilot, investigator, psychiatrist, detective, explorer, diver, geologist or any other profession which could put you in touch with the unknown.

Mercury in 10th house:

You are likely to change jobs many times in your life and probably will have more than one job at a time. Your career is very important to you, and you are attracted to politics, intellectual occupations, literary or commercial fields or any activity that puts you in touch with the public. You are very good at communicating your own ideas and could excel as a speaker. Your always sharp and active mind enables you to organize and handle people. In order to achieve your goals, you could become overambitious or even selfish. You can excel in any profession you choose because of your intelligence and wealth of ideas.

Venus in 10th house:

You are likely to have many ambitions and enjoy social success. Throughout your life you will have many friends and receive help from them. You were born with a deep sense of diplomacy as well as aesthetic taste, and because of this, you could do well in artistic or social fields. You are successful in dealing with the public. This astrological influence indicates enjoyment of your profession and your life in general.

Pluto in 10th house:

You have a great capacity to excel as a leader and to handle large groups of people. In order to achieve success, you will have to learn to be more patient and flexible, and to control your tendency to be tyrannical. It is likely that your professional life will be dedicated to producing changes and transformations in your environment, or to healing others through the fields of medicine or psychiatry, or to managing a large corporation. Whatever your profession, you are sure to attain a very authoritative position; people will either love you or hate you, but you never will be unnoticed.

Ruler of 10th house in 10th house:

You are likely to put a lot of energy into achieving professional success. Your ambitions and goals are clearly defined, and you have a need to demonstrate to yourself and others what you can achieve through your own effort. Your career may depend on parental support or guidance, or you may follow in the footsteps of your parents. Either way, you always point out your individuality and personal ability.
